

Social Emotional Learning (SEL)

Social Emotional Learning at FHS focuses on student well-being, self-awareness, and healthy relationship-building. Through structured lessons and supportive practices, students develop emotional regulation, empathy, resilience, and conflict-resolution skills. SEL supports a positive school culture and helps students navigate academic challenges, personal growth, and life beyond high school.