

Sciences

Physical Science

Explores basic principles of physics and chemistry, including motion, energy, matter, and scientific investigation through hands-on activities and inquiry.

Biology

Examines living systems, including cell structure, genetics, ecosystems, and human biology, emphasizing scientific literacy and real-world applications.

Physics

Introduces core concepts such as motion, forces, energy, and waves, using mathematical reasoning and experimental analysis to understand physical phenomena.